April 26, 2009

*Then he OPENED their minds to UNDERSTAND the Scriptures.
And he said to them,
“Thus it is WRITTEN
that the Christ would SUFFER
and RISE from the dead
on the THIRD day.”*

3rd Sunday Of Easter

It had been an especially trying day. He had been out of work for over six months, and despite many interviews, he had not been offered any positions. He thought he had qualifications for the positions he had applied, what with a college degree and many years' experience in his field. Still, he continued to be turned down, often with no explanation whatsoever. Depressed, he turned to a particularly good book and read the words of a reassuring friend: "Peace be with you." That afternoon, he received a call from an employer.

Today's Gospel reading is Luke's version of last week's reading from John. Two men have just visited the disciples and told of their encounter with the risen Jesus on their way to Emmaus. Excitedly, they recalled how they did not recognize him, but felt a burning in their hearts as they walked along and listened to him speak. Not until he broke the bread at dinner did they understand in whose presence they were. And as they told their story, Jesus appeared to them all in the room, startling them with his presence so they were unable to recognize him. "Peace be with you," he tells them.

At times in our lives, we are hidden behind locked doors, fearful of the world and what it may have to offer us, or even what it may want to take from us. It is at these times that we must look for the resurrected Jesus and listen for his offer of peace. We celebrate the liturgy in expectation of Christ's return; we pray in hope through the Holy Spirit (CCC 2657). When we are fearful, remember the prayer of St. Paul: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the holy Spirit." (Rom 15:13).

The Road Home

Imagine that you are four years old. Imagine that you've spent the last three months living in the IHN shelter program, going to preschool each day, making friends with the staff, having fun with the volunteers, but never knowing when - or if - it will be your turn to move into an apartment. Imagine watching and listening while your grown-up works hard to fill out papers and go to meetings. And looks tired. And tries to smile.

Last Friday, one four-year-old came to visit each staff member and each volunteer to tell us the good news, all in one breath: "We're moving into an apartment next week and it has a pool and it has a garage where you can park a car and I have a

IF NOT YOU, WHO? IF NOT NOW, WHEN?

COLLEGE CONNECTION PROGRAM

The U.S. Council of Serra developed the College Connection Program to help freshmen students connect with Catholic campus ministries. Serra representatives collect the names of Catholic high school graduates along with their intended college and its location. They will forward this information to the campus ministries who, in turn, will send the student a welcoming packet and greet the student upon arrival. You may enroll your son or daughter, grandson or granddaughter, or relative by adding their name to the Enrollment Form found at the Parish Office. If you prefer, enroll online: www.madisondiocese.org, then go to the Vocations tab.

room and we looked at one apartment that wasn't very nice but then we saw this big one and we really liked it and...." He moved, today, into a Second Chance Apartment.

So this week, another child with no place to go will come to The Road Home and begin his or her journey with us. Thank you for everything you all do to make it possible. If you'd like to learn more, please visit www.trhome.org and click on Homes for Families Tours "Learn More" to get started.
